(Two local Scouts receive Eagle Scout awards)

In ceremonies held recently, two Troop 7 Scouts, Eric Creeger, 17, Grapevine, and Michael Davis, 17, Flower Mound, received the Eagle award.

Each boy's father, also an Eagle Scout, presented his son with the badge, the highest rank earned by Boy Scouts. David Creeger, Scoutmaster of Troop 7, pinned on his son's award as mother Jean Creeger looked on. Boyd Davis, assistant Scoutmaster, did the honors as mother Lana Davis stood next to Mike.

The presentations were part of a potluck supper held at Troop 7's chartered organization, St. Francis Church. Bob Perry read the charge to the Eagles. Raul Chavez served as master of ceremonies. St. Francis's hall was the scene of the awards.
